

Workshop on developing competency based nursing curriculum between Thaibinh Medical College and NPO

Thaibinh, September, 29, 2017

Content

| Time        | Content   |   |
|-------------|---|---|
| 7h30-8h00   | Welcome delegates   | Thaibinh Medical College staffs   |
| 8h00-8h15   | Welcome Remarks   | Pham Quang Hoa, PhD, Rector of Thai Binh Medical CollegeJunko Aono, PhD, Chief Director of Authorized Non-Profit Organization for Educational Support for Foreign Nurses and Care Workers   |
| 8h15-8h45   | Experiences of doing Competency based nursing curriculum in some countries                | Nguyen Thanh Son, PhD, Vice Rector of Thai Binh Medical College   |
| 8h45-9h30   | Overview on Japan Nurse Examination and Analysis of Result of Vietnam EPA Nurse Candidate | Junko Aono, PhD, Chief Director of Authorized Non-Profit Organization for Educational Support for Foreign Nurses and Care Workers   |
| 9h30-9h45   | Discussion  |   |
| 9h45-10h00  | Coffee break  |   |
| 10h00-10h40 | Difference in “Fundamental Nursing” between Japan and Vietnam                             | Nguyen Son Ha, EPA Nurse, Satukidai Hospital, Chiba, JapanJunko Aono, PhD, Chief Director of Authorized Non-Profit Organization for Educational Support for Foreign Nurses and Care Workers |
| 10h40-11h10 | Difference in “Maternal Nursing” between Japan and Vietnam                                | Tomoko Ijuin, Director of Authorized Non-Profit Organization for Educational Support for Foreign Nurses and Care Workers  |
| 11h10-12h00 | Discussion, closing remarks   |   |

